CONGRATULATIONS TO DR. THOMAS HIGBEE

April 10, 2012 by cpehrson

Dr. Thomas Higbee

The CPD extends congratulations to Dr. Thomas Higbee on his recent promotion to Full Professorship in the Special Education & Rehabilitation Department, in the Emma Eccles Jones College of Education and Human Services at USU.

In announcing his promotion along with several other colleagues in CEHS, Dean Beth Foley stated that "All have made sustained and important contributions to the College and to their respective disciplines."

Dr. Higbee is also a CPD Faculty Fellow, and the founder and director of the Autism Support Services: Education, Research, and Training (ASSERT) program, a state-of-the-art preschool housed at the CPD for children with autism. Throughout his career, he has worked with children with autism and other developmental disabilities in homes, centers and school-based programs. Through workshops and consultation, he has trained teachers and related service providers in school districts in four states.

Congratulations, Dr. Higbee!
